

G.L. JOHNSON

Reverend G. L. Johnson has been Senior Pastor of Peoples Church in Fresno, California, since 1963 with a Sunday attendance of about 4,000 and a full-time pastoral staff of 13.

Reverend Johnson serves on numerous religious boards including the Board of Directors of Southern California College, the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, Asian Center for Theological Studies, and Fresno Christian Schools. He received his education at Southwestern Assemblies of God and the Mennonite Biblical Seminary in Fresno. In addition to receiving many awards and honors, he was granted honorary doctorates from Southern California Theological Seminary and the California Graduate School of Theology. Reverend Johnson is a frequent conference speaker and has conducted numerous pastors' seminars. Reverend Johnson is known around the world. His name is included on many "lists" of well-known pastors and church builders. Whether preaching, teaching, serving, writing, or encouraging – he is in demand.

In 1983, the Johnson Scholarship Fund was established in honor of Pastor Johnson's Twentieth Anniversary at the Peoples Church. This scholarship provides grants to young people to assist them with the cost of education prior to entering full-time ministry.

On May 17, 1998, the congregation of The Peoples Church celebrated the Thirty-fifth Anniversary of Reverend Johnson's ministry at the church and as an honor for his years of ministry, the congregation is contributing to the increase of the Johnson Scholarship Fund.

Reverend Johnson and his wife Jackie, have one daughter and two granddaughters.
